An introduction for postgraduates

What? SSSN offers an introduction to Medieval Book Illumination. This module will be discussing questions of history, contents, function and technology of the medieval illuminated book as well as art historical research methods. Extensive study and examination of manuscripts will provide a guideline for scientific research.

Where? Nürnberg City Library (Germany)

Who? This course is designed for graduates, e.g. PhD students (Bachelor’s degree minimum). Language of instruction will be German and English

Costs? 350 € (accommodation is not included)

For further information see: www.mittellatein.phil.uni-erlangen.de